

“Will You Read to Me”

Author: Jo Ann Russell

Illustrator: Janice Bodenhamer

“Will You Read to Me” is designed specifically to be used by R.E.A.D.® teams to help introduce the program to principals and for teachers to introduce the program to their students.

It features Bruce, the Border Collie.

Readers are introduced to Bruce and all the steps that he takes to get ready to meet his students.

With beautiful illustrations, a happy Bruce is shown taking a bath, getting brushed, having his nails filed and his teeth brushed.

Next, Bruce arrives at school where he and his student find a great spot in the school library and the student selects a book from the R.E.A.D.® book bag.

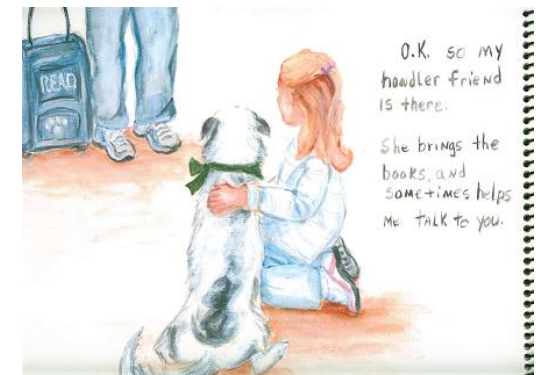

Many times the first few sessions are hampered by the uncertainty of the child. To help overcome this concern,

Bruce, a friendly dog who likes to cuddle, explains what is going to take place as they begin R.E.A.D.®ing.

Bruce explains that the handler is also there. The handler brings the books and sometimes helps him talk to the student.

Bruce tells about the special book the student can choose for her/his very own when s/he reaches the goal and he will add his paw-to-graph.

"I wanted to let you know we received the book yesterday, and it is delightful. I congratulate you on producing a quality piece that will further the R.E.A.D. concept and be very useful for our teams in the schools. I can't wait to get it into our program...."
